- 1 The finest piece of early porcelain I have ever offered in my catalogs. Spectacular large 16" Paris porcelain vase, entirely hand painted, with a superb grisaille portrait of George Washington after Gilbert Stuart. Pale salmon ground with deep teal trim highlighted with black and gold. Reverse features classical musical instruments. The handles are the best I have seen on a Paris vase - a pair of blond and brunette girls in long white dresses, reclining against the vase as they read books. Pristine condition, first quarter 19th century. The best! 28,500.
- 2 Unique 18th century domed document chest 17 X 9½ X 7, covered in dark reddish brown leather, original iron lock, hasp and handle. Top of lid stamped in gold with royal crown, initials WP (William Pitt) and "Stamp Act Repd March 18 1766". Lid is lined with allegorical broadside "AMERICA", and the bottom with the first page of "An Accurate Description of America". Leather covering has the expected cracks and losses, but the gilt inscription is bold and clear. An incredible relic of a seminal event in American history. 8,950.
- 3 One of the best snuff boxes I have had. 4¼ X 2, made entirely of handcarved mother of pearl set in elaborate vermeil (gilt silver) rims. Portrait George Washington with crosshatched background and relief beading. Eight separate side panels with floral carving. Underside is smooth octagonal pearl panel. Almost certainly French, circa 1810's - 1830's. Magnificent. 5,750.
- 4 Arguably the finest political brooch to appear on the market in my 37 years as a full time dealer. Spectacular hand carved shell cameo of President John Quincy Adams, descended directly in his family and sold recently with other items belonging to him and his granddaughter Mary Louisa Adams (born 1828). Finely detailed high relief portrait in 2" gold pinback brooch surrounded by small pearls. In what is probably the original hinged case of leather, silk and velvet. 20,000.
- 5 Extremely rare sixth plate gold stamped leather case with gilt brass relief figure of the 1853 New York Crystal Palace enclosed in an oval glass dome. Inside is a lovely daguerreotype taken inside one of the exhibition halls. The dag shows a closeup of a large marble of a semi nude woman, with other statuary in the background amidst various trees and foliage within the glass and steel structure. A great daguerreotype in a previously unrecorded case. Superb condition. 3,500.
- 6 I purchased this marvelous painting in New Orleans about 25 years ago. Huge 33 X 65 (sight) oil on canvas in beautiful 41 X 72 custom frame. An allegorical scene of the end of the Confederate States of America. The scene takes place in a large church or temple with an open air view to the sky. An angel of death stands beside a large column at the left, a sword in her hand. She watches over a long procession led by Robert E Lee, James Longstreet, John B Gordon and Nathan Bedford Forrest. The group behind them are carrying flags as they walk away from a coffin before an altar. Above the altar is a smoke shrouded scene of a cavalry charge. At the top center, above the angel's wing, a group of mounted riders ascend to heaven. Not signed or dated, but circa 1870's - 1890's. Generally excellent condition with a few small scattered abrasions and wrinkles. Relined. Note that this is too large to ship by normal methods. I will deliver in person west to Ohio or south to Florida. 14,500.
- 7 Very rare quarter plate daguerreotype President James Buchanan. Overall superb condition, a few scattered small spots of golden tarnish. Please note that this is the real deal, not to be confused with the bogus Buchanan lookalike English dag recently offered by a major auction house with an estimate of $30-50,000. There are very few dags of Buchanan known. The only example in Facing the Light is a group shot with President Polk and other cabinet members, now in the collection of Eastman House. A rare opportunity! 22,500.
- 8 Conspiracy theories are not confined to the modern era. At the time of Lincoln's assassination there were rumors that Secretary of War Edwin Stanton was involved in the plot, and the carver of this piece no doubt believed it. Amazing scrimshaw ivory plaque 3 X 5 showing the four dead conspirators on the gallows with the inscription "July 22 1865 - All but Stanton Dead". Perfect condition in period frame 8 X 10 (not shown). Unconditionally guaranteed genuine. I purchased this incredible item in California in the 70's, and sold it to a top midwestern collector in the 80's. It was subsequently sold in a Tom Slater (Indianapolis) auction perhaps 10-15 years ago. I was pleased to have the good fortune to buy it for a second time. An amazing Lincoln assassination relic. 2,950.
- 9 Spectacular sixth plate daguerreotype of a Philadelphia fireman in parade dress. Stovepipe hat with the arms of Pennsylvania. Cape with initials PH (probably Philadelphia Hose). Long double breasted coat, trumpet in hand, wide leather belt with large buckle that reads DIRECTOR. Hat and cape with pale blue tinting, underbrim of hat tinted red. Accompanied by large 6" buckle with engraved and enameled lettering DIRECTOR. It first appears that this is the very buckle he is wearing, but close examination with a loupe shows minor differences in the letters. Superb condition (minor halo of tarnish). 7,950.
- 10 Wonderful Tennessee slave sale broadside 12 X 16 on bright yellow paper. Sale at Merriwethers Tavern in Denmark June 18 1855 by order of Chancery Court in Jackson. Eight slaves each identified by name to be sold by Thos Clark. Generally excellent, a bit of faint waterstain, in nice custom frame (not shown). Denmark is about 75 miles northeast of Memphis. The only Tenn slave broadside I've had. 6,250.
- 11 Extremely rare ribbon, blue printing on white silk. Charlotte Wide Awakes, beardless Lincoln portrait. Some soiling mainly at upper right, VF. 2,850.
- 12 Political collectors looking for a "small" John Adams item have very little to choose from. I know of only a pewter rim (well over $10,000) and two varieties of small brass buttons. Offered here is a small 15mm brass cuff or vest button with profile portrait "Jo. Adams", Sullivan JA 1796-3. Boldly struck with excellent detail, original shank. A couple small tarnish spots in the recesses of his coat. Nice XF, excessively rare. 5,000.
- 13 Franklin Pierce 1852-1, white metal, choice lustrous AU. Unholed, considered by DeWitt to be a restrike circa 1860. Superb and very popular. 300.
- 14 Desirable large Fremont 1856-1, white metal 60mm "The Rocky Mountains Echo Back Fremont - The Peoples Choice..." VF-XF with bit of minor tarnish, much nicer than the Sullivan plate example. 350.
- 15 My favorite Samuel Tilden token, 1876-9, Tildens Convention Bitters, reverse ad for the famous Drakes Plantation Bitters. Gilt brass, unc. 165.
- 16 Exceedingly rare 1921 Indiana Harding - Coolidge Inauguration badge March 4 1921, featuring an unlisted 1½ blk/wht celluloid jugate. Two of these turned up in the midwest in 2011, and I wound up with one of them. Bold, bright, pristine. 7,500.
- 17 Previously unrecorded 1" Benjamin Franklin sulphide brooch pin circa 1820's. Note that this is an actual cameo sulphide encased in glass, not to be confused with the 1840's engraved glass plaques commonly referred to as sulphides (which they are not). Excellent with original pin. 1,500.
- 18 This is really different. Tiny little 1" molded stoneware jug with raised portraits "Harrison" and "Morton", lustrous brown glaze. 300.
- 19 Rare pewter Washington button, engraved script GW. Sullivan GW 1789-29A, the smaller 19mm variant of Albert 20. Choice XF-AU, original shank. 3,500.
- 20 Terrific ¾" intaglio glass seal, kneeling slave "Am I Not A Man and A Brother". 650.
- 21 Unique 1½ exquisitely hand painted enamel Daniel Webster in engraved gold mount. Presumably a brooch, but no pin. Pristine. 1,750.
- 22 Rare Winfield Hancock cardboard photo stickpin. The Garfield mate shows up on occasion, but I don't recall seeing the Hancock before. Excellent 300.

- 24 Previously unrecorded pair of 1" porcelain clothing buttons with portraits FDR and Garner. 350.

- 29 Nixon 2½ cello, rare 225.
- 30 Lincoln assassination badge 1865, cardboard portrait on 6" blk/wht silk. 950.
- 31 (difficult to photograph - design is bold and clear). Rare USG 1872-1, conjoined jugate Grant-Wilson struck in leather "The Natick Cobbler - The Galena Tanner". Reverse their names and "There's Nothing Like Leather", which both used in their early occupations. VF, only the second or third I've seen in 37 years. 575.
- 32 Rare 4" cello, Lake County Indiana 1960. Crawford Parker lost the governors race by only one percentage point. Few teensy specks in white background. 575.

- 33 Unique counterstamp on 1908 half dollar "K of C - Knights of Mob and Murder". Against the Catholic Knights of Columbus. 350.

Reverse engraved by a different hand with later battles including Kenesaw Mt, Siege of Atlanta, March to Sea. XF 1,500.

- 39 Rare 1932 DNC badge National Committee - Dept Sgt. Arms. 225.
- 40 Gorgeous gold quartz matchsafe with panels in contrasting colors, entire surface with elaborate decorative engraving. Reverse "To Grandpapa from Ronie, Arthur and Lester". Engraved bird with large fanned tail. Excellent. 6,950.
- 41 I don't recall having previously seen any paintings of Stephen A Douglas. Fine oil painting on canvas 22 X 26 in beautiful grain painted frame 28 X 32. The stretcher is inscribed "Father's painting of his friend Sen Douglas". Excellent condition. A couple small pieces of veneer missing from outer edge of frame, hardly worth mentioning. 2,350.
- 42 A spectacular large 1860 Lincoln broadside, printed in Boston by F A Searles. Long quote from Lincoln's speech in Leavenworth Kansas, Dec 1859. John Brown was hanged Dec 2, 1859, and at that time Lincoln was already being considered a Presidential possibility. He was on a speaking tour to several Kansas towns, where he made numerous references to Brown and the execution. He rails against the Democrats for their threats to break up the Union if a Republican is elected. "Old John Brown has just been executed for treason...slavery wrong...cannot excuse violence, bloodshed and treason...if we elect a President and you undertake to destroy the Union IT WILL BE OUR DUTY TO DEAL WITH YOU AS OLD JOHN BROWN HAS BEEN DEALT WITH..." Large 18 1/2 X 24 (sight), custom framed to 24 1/2 X 30. Light age toning actually adds to its overall visual appeal. Wonderful historical content. 8,500.
- 43 Tilden woven silk ribbon, mint, scarce 375.
- 44 Very rare 8 1/2" folding checkerboard with alternating squares featuring albumen portraits of famous personalities. One side includes Lincoln, Hamlin, Stephen Douglas, Sam Houston, Clay, Webster, Calhoun, Taylor, Everett, Fillmore, Benton, others. The other half is mainly literary figures including Poe and Cooper. Only the second example I have had - I sold the other for $1,850 back in 1986. Bit of minor foxing and some edge wear to the marbled green border. A superb rarity. 3,250.
- 45 Outstanding sixth plate tintype of a torchlight parade marcher in fancy uniform, tricorner hat, his globular tin torch tinted red & blue with a red tinted flame at the tip. Mounted to the torch pole is a tinted flag that reads "Hayes and Wheeler". In full leather case. It doesn't get much better than this. 2,250.
- 46 This has been in my safe since I purchased it from a Slater auction ten years ago. Thick embossed brass case 2 X 3 "Our Presidents 1776-1876". Brass knobs at right turn to show portraits of all Presidents through the windows, which are made of mica. Scroll ends with Tilden and Hendricks, who of course wound up losing the disputed election. Excellent condition but for some crazing in the left window. The only example ever seen, and the matching item for Hayes & Wheeler is apparently unknown. 3,750.

- 48 Excessively rare Theodore Roosevelt movie poster circa 1917, portrait TR with TR Jr, Quentin, Kermit, Archibald. Below is charming scene "A small American boy named Teddy puts on his first glasses". Quote by TR at bottom donating all his profits from the film to the Red Cross until all American soldiers return home from World War I. Some minor soiling and a couple of small losses at fold intersections, not affecting design at all. On linen, VF. 2,500.
- 49 Very rare 1960 Massachusetts poster 14X22 with JFK & Joseph D Ward for Governor. Kennedy's coattails surprisingly couldn't carry Ward in their home state, & he lost to the popular Republican John Volpe. Reportedly only three examples are known, & one of these is in rough condition. This is excellent. 1,250.
- 50 For the Wallace collector who has everything. Rare 6" alarm clock with portrait, by Lux. Runs briefly when shaken, but then stops. Assume that it's not running. 90.
- 51 Lincoln-Hamlin jugate cover, mint. 125.
- 52 Excessively rare 25" sash, deep blue on white. No doubt worn by a lady voting in her first Presidential election. Excellent. 2,950.
- 53 This incredible image of Uncle Sam, TR and the Gold Dust Twins was issued as a full size poster in 1910 when Roosevelt returned from Africa. I have never seen or heard of an example of the original poster. Fortunately a small 10 X 19 foldout sample of the poster was printed the same year (1910) in a rare book on poster art where it was pronounced the greatest commercial poster ever. The book itself is rare - the only example I have seen was priced at $700. Offered here is one of the sample foldouts - blank on the reverse. "Roosevelt Scoured Africa - The Gold Dust Twins Scour America". They are carrying his luggage and guns on the docks of NYC. Excellent with three vertical folds as issued, nicely framed. 800.

Reverse side has open brass works and chime with very fancy gilt pendulum supported by snakes from either side of nine alternating steel and gilt rods. Recessed front panel inset with 4 1/2" Wedgwood style blue/white jasperware plaque Lafayette. Double key wind, running condition. A lovely and eye catching item. 3,250.

Excellent content, many showing men, mules, wagons, equipment, etc. 1,000.
- 157 Very rare composite cabinet photo of the lynching of African-Americans Charles Miller, John Scott and Robert Burton on Oct 17 1891 by a mob in Alleghany County VA. - 179 This is one of my favorite items in the catalog. An immense zoomorphic Penobscot style club with the head being two different animals in combination with a water dipper. 39" long, carved from a single piece of wood rot. The huge head is over 9" across. Facing one way it appears to be a woolly sheep's head. From the side it's either a dog or a bear, with distinct ears, eyes and nostrils. The wide open mouth is a water dipper formed from the hollowed out head. Even though hollow, the walls of the head are thick enough to make it a formidable weapon. The slightly curved handle is decorated the entire length with simple cross hatching. Age crack along one side of handle, otherwise excellent. Found in a Maine home, likely Penobscot Indian. A wonderful piece of 19th century sculptural folk art. 2,450.
- 180 Wonderful 47" cedar totem decorated in salmon red and blue with black highlights. Carved with ten different figures, then topped with three little men wearing potlatch hats. Great form and detail, most likely a tourist trade piece from the 1920's-40's. Excellent. 1,750.
- 181 Unique 28" pipe in the form of a war club, with a birds head at the end. I don't know how it was done, but the hole is actually drilled the entire length from mouthpiece to bowl. Extensive brass tack decoration and nonfunctional wood spike. 2,950.
- 182 Bizarre hand inked playing card made from skin. Paper label on back of frame "One of a number of playing cards made from human skin, presented to the Corps in 1870 by General Oscar Long, serving at the time with the regular Army on the Western plains". The implication is obvious as to the source of the skin. 2,250.
- 183 Previously unseen large photo 9 1/2 X 11 1/2 (sight) with Indians, cowboys, military, dignitaries and Buffalo Bill himself standing at front center "Buffalo Bills Wild West... Stone Wall
Let my men have the name,
It belongs more to them than to me,
Hop for the mighty dead,
The nations joy and pride,
And fall the mountain side;
From hill and mountain side;
Virginia showed thy banner,
I hope not to see north Son,
West, filled with Maryland jacks,
Thy freedom would have shown.
Hop for the hero christians;
We will give greatest heed,
And southern home is dashed,
Each southern heart must shed,
At thousand death long fellow,
To win him from the front,
What more a thousand best his,
The good, the pure, the brave.
Hop for the good men fellow,
The mother and of love.
